

The Monarchs are a wicked bunch, and there is no rest for the wicked, you know, or should we have said weary? Anyhow, team after team to trim is the arduous task set for these wicked locals. This week brought the Dayton Marcos to town for their trimming, but Saturday's game looked as if the visitors were there themselves to do the trimming, not to be trimmed. They took the first game by outbatting the locals in a veritable slugfest. The Dayton gang are small calibered in size, but there with the big stick—they swat the ball! In the fifth they gathered oodles of safeties off of Currie which netted them 7 scores. Smith ascended the acclivity to relieve Currie, but was immediately murdered after pitching only a few across. Mendez finaled on the mound for his team. The score by innings:

Monarchs.	113	100	120—	9	11	0
