

Sunday's Game.

The Monarchs, after a set of close played sessions, won today's game from the chubby little players from Harding's own state. Things started off in serious style, neither side scoring until the fourth, when the aggressive Monarchs broke the monotony by putting one over. Rogan pitched elegant ball up to the first half of the fifth when he hurt his arm and had to be relieved by Crawford, who finished in great manner, holding the visitors down to 3 hits and the single score they were able to make. The seventh looked dangerous to the locals, but Crawford got his english to working and kept the Daytonians from scoring again. The abrogated fellows seemed to play the home boys a closer game than the storming "Rube" did last week. The game was fast and clean-cut, no squabbling. The elongated pitcher for the visitors performed well for five rounds, but the locals found him in the sixth and he was pulled with 3 men on bases. Lane, who relieved his fellow hurler, could not redeem the bad situation and the Monarchs ran in 2. Except for a few extended features the crowd rivaled the one of the preceding Sunday. The score:

		R.	H.	E.
Marcos	000	000	000	—1	5 1
Monarchs	000	102	10x	—4	9 2

Batteries: Bright, Lane, Murray
—Rogan, Crawford, Rodriguez.
