

NEW YORK GIANTS & ROYAL GIANTS IN DOUBLE-HEADER SUNDAY

New York Giants will furnish Hudson County fans with the biggest bargain offered this season, Sunday (to-morrow), when they clash with the Royal Giants in a double-header at the Jersey City baseball park. The Giants will again play under the name of Jersey City, and will present in their lineup such great stars as Hal Chase, George Burns, Art Fletcher, Wilhoit, Jay Kirke, Larry Doyle, Ollie O'Mara, Red Causey, Lew Wendell and Al Demaree.

The Royal Giants are determined to show up the Giants, as this is the first time in the history of the colored champions that they have had the long-looked for opportunity of facing a real major league club. The Royals will offer to Hudson County fans their strongest lineup, including Shortstop Ted Lloyd, formerly of the Chicago Giants; Webster, Earle, Marcelle, Casson, Pugh, Harrison, Hewitt, Stantop, Parks, Robinson, and Donaldson.

The first game will start at 2:15, when Demaree will face Robinson. The second game will start immediately after the conclusion of the first, with Donaldson working against Red Causby.

Hundreds of shipyard workers from the plant where the Giants are now employed will be on hand Sunday to root for them. The games are expected to draw the record crowd of the season at West Side Avenue.
