

CHICAGO GIANTS HERE FIVE DAYS OPEN SATURDAY

The Chicago Giant baseball aggregation of the Colored National League, will make their first appearance tomorrow (Saturday) against the Kansas City Monarchs for five games, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday — Tuesday being ladies' day, they being admitted FREE.

The Giants are a fast bunch of diamond performers, and have been giving all their opponents lots of trouble this year. The Monarchs have been making every team earn their beans, having won the majority of their games this season. The team having been strengthened and the two stars that will report the first of July it looks good for the Monarchs to climb to the top.

All games are at Association park. called at 3 p. m.

Kansas City Advocate, Kansas City, KS

Friday, June 25, 1920, Page 1, Column 3