

STENGELE'S STARTS TO PLAY HERE.

Monarchs Will Meet Major Leaguers
October 9 and 10.

Casey Stengel, Kansas City boy, who is a member of the Philadelphia National League club outfield, will bring a team composed of major league players here for a series with the Monarchs. The games will be played October 9 and 10.

Last year Stengel took a club to the coast and this season he plans to make the same trip. He had intended to get several players on the Brooklyn club but had to make different arrangements when the Dodgers copped the National League flag. Possible members of Stengel's club are: Rixey, Philadelphia; Maranville, Boston; Schmidt, Pittsburgh; "Cot" Tierney, Pittsburgh; Meusel, Philadelphia; Meusel, Yankees; Meadows, Philadelphia; Hawlings, Philadelphia; Boeckel, Boston; Paulette, Philadelphia; Lewis Yankees; Hubbell, Philadelphia; Stengel, Philadelphia.

The Kansas City Star, Kansas City, MO

Sunday, October 3, 1920, Page 19, Column 4

