

MONARCHS HOME NEXT SATURDAY.

Club in Negro League Will Open Season Here This Week.

The Kansas City Monarchs of the National Negro League are starting their last road series of the opening trip at Chicago today, after which they will return here and open their season next Saturday with the Indianapolis A. B. C. club. To date the Monarchs have played only three games out of eight games scheduled, the others being stopped on account of rain. The A. B. C. club, which opens here, has lost only one league game. They dropped a 10-inning game to the Monarchs. The Indianapolis club has won seven games.

The opening of the league here next Saturday will be started off by a parade with a band, both ball clubs and local boosters in their automobiles.

The clubs will play Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Decoration day and June 1 and 2.
