

THE MONARCHS PLAY HERE TODAY

Indianapolis Here for First Game in National Negro League.

The Kansas City Monarchs will return home from Chicago tomorrow. They play their final game of the series there today. The Monarchs open the Negro National League season at home tomorrow at Association Park, the visiting club being the Indianapolis A. B. C., who will be here for a 5 game series.

The A. B. C.s have lost only two games this season, losing those to the Monarchs in a 4 game series at Indianapolis.

The Monarchs have played twelve games on their first road trip, losing seven and winning five. These games were against Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago. The club is coming home for a long series, with Mendez and Rodriguez both back in the game and Donaldson ready to take his regular turn on the mound. The opening today will be started off by a parade of rooters and a band. The lineups for tomorrow follow

	A	B	C
W. H. ...	Taylor	1b
Ca ...	Debbitt	2b
H ...	Day	3b
Part ...	Clark	4b
W ...	Shively	5b
W ...	Charleston	6b
Donaldson, cf.	Rogland	7b
Washington, cf.	Leamaker	8b
Newford, D.	Jefferson	9b
L ...	Johnson	10b
Donaldson, D.

The Kansas City Star, Kansas City, MO

Saturday, May 29, 1920, Page 3, Column 1