

Monarchs Cop Opener From Cuban Stars, 7-3

With Crawford pitching in superb form, the Monarchs easily defeated the Cuban Stars in the opening game of the series at Association park yesterday, 7 to 3.

Herendez, who took the firing line for the visitors, was hammered hard in the second inning, the locals piling up five runs which were enough to clinch victory. After the fateful second, Herendez settled down and kept the Monarchs' blows well scattered up until the sixth, when a pair of base knocks netted the locals another run. Three more healthy clouts in the eighth added another run to the Monarchs' total.

Crawford weakened temporarily in the third round and allowed the Cubans to register a brace of counters, but he pulled himself together after this and was never in danger. Costly boots by Washington and Portunda enabled the visitors to add another tally in the ninth. Donaldson likely will do the heaving for the Monarchs this afternoon, while Lopez will take the elevation for the Cubans. Score:
