

Monday's Game.

The first official act of the Monarchs was to knock the stuffings out of the ball in the initial round. McDovel, hurling for the Giants, went down at once from the onslaught, allowing three runs. Davis, relieving him, fared worse, dropping four runs. And Chase, the third pitcher suffered the other six runs during his administration. Donaldson made a clever catch and batted a homer by way of climax.

The score by innings:

Chicago	000300030	6
Kansas City	34040002x	13
Batteries, McDovel, Davis, Chase—
Backwith, Foreman, Rodriguez.

Monarchs Make It Three Straight From Giants, 13-6

The Monarchs pounded three Chicago pitchers hard in the third game of the series with the Giants yesterday and made it three victories in a row, 13 to 6.

Foreman, who was on the hilltop for the Monarchs, was hit freely but kept the blows well scattered while his mates backed him up with good support. Aside from the fourth and eighth runs when the visitors collected their six runs, Foreman was never in danger.

MacDugle, who started on the elevation for the Giants, lasted only one-third of an inning, while Davis, who replaced him, was hit hard and forced to retire at the end of the first chapter. Chase, who replaced Davis, weakened in the fourth and eighth frames, allowing the locals to gather six more runs.

The Monarchs jumped into the lead in the first stanza by gathering a trio of tallies, while four more were added in the second and four in the fourth.

Today will be ladies day, all ladies being admitted free. Currie is slated to do the hurling for the Monarchs, while Taylor, the Chicago ace, will be on the mound for the Giants.
