Monarchs Make It Five in Row; Beat Giants, 1-0

A single by Mendez in the tenth round which scored Crawford, gave the Monarchs a clean sweep in the series with the Chicago Giants yesterday, 1 to 0.

Taylor and Crawford engaged in a pitchers' duel for nine innings, the Monarchs' heaver striking out eleven visitors and yielding only four scattered base knocks, while Taylor was nicked for seven blows, no two of which came in the same inning.

The Giants threatened to score in the ninth when a pair of hits and a walk loaded the bases, but head work on the part of Crawford and air tight support by his mates enabled the Monarchs' heaver to pull out of the hole.

The Monarchs will leave today for an extended road trip, playing in Chicago, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Detroit before returning home July 24 to open a series with the strong Beloit, Kas., team. Score:
