

COLORED SERIES OPENS SATURDAY

Stars and Kansas City Monarchs Clash at Mack Park.

Kansas City Monarchs and Detroit Stars will start their six-game series at Mack park Saturday afternoon, the game being called at 3 o'clock.

This is the second meeting of these clubs this season, the westerners taking the first three games to two. They bring the same team headed by the former Cuban Stars' hurler, Joe Mendez, who still does some good twirling.

He pitched a couple of games in the previous series here, winning and losing, and probably will work in Saturday's conflict with McDonald or Holland opposing.

The Stars' team now is in good shape again and should reverse the former verdict. Some fine baseball is to be expected.

LYONS' HOMER PUTS WORK ON KANSANS

His Hit Over Fence Wins First for the Stars.

In a pitchers' duel between Holland and Crawford the Detroit Stars defeated the Kansas City Monarchs 3 to 1. Each pitcher allowed but four hits, Holland deserving a shutout.

Monarchs got their lone run in the second on Rogan's double and an error by Eggleston. The locals tied the score in the fifth when Harper walked and scored on Riggins's single after advancing on an out. The game remained one all until the eighth, when Lyons slammed the ball over the right field fence for two runs and the game.

Hill and Donaldson each made sensational running catches in center, while Riggins handled the ball very cleverly in the ninth.

Gatewood will probably pitch for the locals Sunday, with Donaldson working for the Monarchs.
