

LYONS' HOMER BEATS MONARCHS

Detroit, Aug. 14.—In a pitchers' dual between Holland and Crawford the Detroit Stars defeated the Kansas City Monarchs 3 to 1. Each pitcher allowed but 4 hits, Holland deserving a shutout.

Monarchs got their lone run in the second on Rogan's double and an error by Eggleston. The locals tied the score in the fifth when Harper walked and scored on Higgins' single after advancing on an out. The game remained one all until the eighth, when Lyons slammed the ball over the right field fence for two runs and the game.

Hill and Donaldson each made sensational running catches in center, while Higgins handled the ball very cleverly in the ninth. Score:
