

BODIE PERFORMS TO-DAY.

Ping Will Play With Shipyard Nine at North Bergen.

With either Thormahlen of the Yankees or Beckvermit of the Binghamton Internationals doing the pitching, the nine from the Tietjen & Lang shipyard will tackle the Royal Giants this afternoon at North Bergen, N. J. The game will be played at Nurge's Field, at Twenty-ninth street and Bergenline avenue. Ping Bodie and Paul Smith will be in the shipbuilders' outfield. Judging from the fine game they put up against the Camp Merritt nine last week the Tietjens & Lang's shape up as a fast aggregation.

The Royal Giants will need some good pitching, and they will use Donaldson, the Western sensation, who has been going so well of late.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, August 18, 1918, Page 6, Column 5