

ALL-NATIONS GO DOWN BEFORE STORZ TRIUMPHS

Pa's Preserve the Scene of an Interesting Ten-Inning Game as Ever Pulled Off There.

The Storz Triumphs defeated the All-Nations in a hard ten-inning battle at Rourke park Sunday.

A large crowd was in attendance and responded in an appreciative manner in the sharp fielding that characterized the play of both clubs.

Donaldson, a long, lank dusky boy, was on the hill for the All-Nations and twirled a sensational game. He fanned eighteen, but showed a few streaks of wildness that proved fatal. It was his own error that allowed the Triumphs to tie up the contest in the ninth, and then win out in the tenth.

Bradford's boys played magnificent work, also Probst's twirling was of the high class order. After the fourth the

All-Nations were retired in one, two, three order until the ninth, when Reeves secured a scratch single.
