

TWO BALL STARS WILL BE HERE ON SATURDAY

With the coming of the All Nation baseball club next Saturday and Sunday baseball fans will have an opportunity to see two of the most remarkable players outside of organized baseball, John (Broom) Donaldson, the lanky colored pitcher, whose work last season in the All Nation-Storz game at Bourke park was one of the greatest exhibitions of pitching ever witnessed on the Vinton street grounds, will endeavor to secure satisfaction from the Brewers for the only defeat he suffered last year. The other player, whose fame outranks even that of the dusky Donaldson, is the great Cuban player, Mendez, who proved a puzzle to the Philadelphia Athletics and defeated the world's champions (at that time) by a score of 1 to 0.
