

ALL NATIONS COMING

Schmelzer Team Will Play Colored Chicago Giants in Topeka.

J. E. Gaul, of the Kansas City Schmelzer All-Nation baseball team is in Topeka arranging for an exhibition game here September 25 and 26 between the Chicago Colored Union Giants and the All-Nations.

John Donaldson, said to be the greatest colored pitcher in the world, is with the All-Nations and Gaul guarantees that he will pitch one of the Topeka games. Among the new men who have recently been taken on by the All-Nations is Pitcher Maple who was with the Joplin club of the Western league all season. The All-Nations have played 104 games this season and have lost only 9.
