

BIG SMOKE HAS PLENTY OF STUFF

JOHN DONALDSON, COLORED
TWIRLER, WHIFFS SIXTEEN
BRAVES AND ALLOWS
THREE HITS.

The biggest baseball crowd of the year yesterday afternoon saw a pitcher work whose only bar from the big leagues is his color. He was John Donaldson, the colored slabster for the All Nations club, who held the Mitchell Braves to three hits and whiffed sixteen batters.

The big smoke had the speed and the stuff to stand any batter on his head and for the first six frames the only man to reach a base was one who walked. Against the hard-hitting visitors, Franklin Johnson pitched a brilliant game. Their nine hits were scattered ones and only in the third and ninth innings were they bunched sufficiently to tally three runs. Only in the seventh did Mitchell have a chance to score.

The Senegambian fanned two Braves in the first frame. Bond, the second-sacker imported from Emery for yesterday's tussle, drew a walk in the second with one man down. Murphy took three strikes and "Umps" Caylor called Gilmore out on a strike that whizzed by his ears. The first hit off Donaldson came in the seventh frame, when Butler drove the ball too hard for Blatnier to handle. Scharnweber forced Butler out at second and Bond walked again but the frame whiffed as Murphy whiffed.

Johnson drew four balls from the black man in the eighth, after two were down. Dougan singled safely when he hit through Blatnier and reached first before the ball could be whipped to the bag. Johnson failed to realize on his end of the double steal from third and first and Dougan was trapped between the bags. In the ninth, Scharnweber rapped the ball for a clean hit into center field and Bond closed the inning and game by grounding out to Dunbar.

Smith singled for the visitors in the second and was the first man to climb on the sacks. Croww grounding out to Johnson behind him. Blatnier opened with a single to left in the third and was sacrificed a notch by Russell. Walla doubled into the left garden and scored Blatnier. A wallop into center by Dunbar and Walla came across the rubber, Seney nailing Dunbar at second.

In the fifth, after Blatnier had flied out to Seney, Russell hit into right field and went to third as Gilmore loafed on the ball. Flies to Liston and a grounder to Butler kept the visitors scoreless. Fast fielding kept the allies safe until the ninth, when Durham singled into left field, advanced a notch when Seney dropped Smith's fly and came home on Blatnier's single into center.

This afternoon, the Braves are playing at Ethan. Tomorrow they will play at Alexandria and Sunday at Plankinton. The next home game will be on Monday night, when Alexandria plays at Hitchcock park at 6 o'clock. The club will play at Scotland Tuesday and Wednesday and the Scotland aggregation will be here Thursday and Friday.
