

ARTESIAN BEATS THE ALL NATIONS

MISSOURIANS BLANKED BY RASMUSSEN, TWO TO ZERO.—TWO CLUBS CLASH HERE AGAIN ON MONDAY.

Snappy attacks by the Scharnweber brigade featured yesterday's game between Artesian and the All Nations, which was won by the Dakotans by the score of 2 to 0. Three of the All Nations were caught napping off the bags right when it looked as if they might come through with runs.

The game was largely a contest between the slabmen, Kinnon and Rasmussen, with the Artesian man having a little the better of it. Each yielded five hits, and issued two walks, but Rasmussen succeeded in whiffing six of the All Nations, while Kinnon only retired three by this route.

Mendez, the dusky Cuban shortstop of the Missourians, turned his ankle while sliding into second in the fifth frame and was taken from the game. He was hurt quite badly and will be out of the game for a short time.

Artesian grabbed the first score in the third inning. With one down, Rasmussen poled out a beautiful single into the right gardens. A wild throw to first gave him another sack. Cass was safe on an error and Rasmussen went to third. McGrath sent a hard fly to left field which Wilkus dropped after making a good one-handed stab at it. Rasmussen counted, but on the next play, Cass was caught at the plate when he attempted to score on Pratt's roller. Kremer cracked a hard one to left, but the fielder robbed him of a hit and the inning closed.

Artesian's last run was made in the ninth. Kremer was safe on an error, but was forced at second on Scharnweber's grounder. With two down, Dougan drove out a hot single between first and second, scoring Scharnweber. Sheeley stopped the work by striking out.

The All Nations looked dangerous a number of times, but failed to exert themselves enough to count. They placed a man at third in the first inning, but could not bring him in. John Donaldson, who had replaced Mendez on the bags in the fifth, trotted to third in easy shape, but allowed himself to be caught napping 20 feet off the sack. In the last of the ninth, two men got on the bags, but stood there helpless while the batter swung three times and ended the game.

The All Nations lined up Steno, cf and ss; Hernandez, 1b; Evans 3b; Coleman, c; Mendez, ss; Luekoi, 2b; Crow, rf; Wilkus, lf; Kinnon, p; Donaldson cf. Artesian's lineup was Cass, cf; McGrath, 1b; Pratt, rf; Kremer, 3b; Scharnweber, ss; Shaffer, lf; Dougan, c; Sheeley, 2b; Rasmussen, p. Umpire Hoffman.

The two teams are matched for a series of games. Today and tomorrow they are playing at Ruskin park. Donaldson is scheduled to pitch the Sunday game and a large crowd of Mitchell people are sure to attend. Another game will be staged at

Hitchcock park Monday afternoon, after which the teams will leave for Sioux Falls for a couple of games.

The Mitchell Capital, Mitchell, SD

Thursday, August 24, 1916, Page 6, Column 7