

ALL-NATIONS WIN FROM BRANDEIS

Same Teams to Battle Again
Today After Armours and Minneapolis Play.

COSMOS HIT THE BALL HARD

Swatting the ball at opportune times and taking advantage of the Brandeis' misplays, the All-Nations administered a severe trouncing to the local semi-pros. Score, 10 to 3.

For five innings the game indicated a pitchers' battle with the visitors in the lead by a small margin. After the fifth the cosmopolitan crowd found Rhode and aided by a few infield mistakes, were able to romp away with the game.

The All-Nations presented a much stronger lineup than in the past. Donaldson and Mendez have lost none of their cunning and were important factors in the victory.

This afternoon a double bill will be staged, consisting of two stellar attractions. The first game, which will be called at 1:45, will be between the General Electrics of Minneapolis and the Armours, local amateur champs. The second game will bring forth Olson and Donaldson in an assured pitchers' battle. Olson has won thirteen victories this season without a loss. The score:

BIG DOUBLE BILL ON CARDS TODAY

Champs in Front Section

BRANDEIS VS. ALL NATIONS

By FRANK QUIGLEY.

Arrangements consummated last week by the big magnates of the Omaha Amateur Base Ball association, Manager Bradford of the Brandeis and Gaul of the All-Nations, made it possible for the bugs of this burg to witness the n'ftiest double bill ever presented in Omaha during the absence of the Rourkes. Promptly at 1:45 this afternoon at Rourke park, the first ball will be fired and from then on diamond activities will keep the fans in a frenzied state until about dusk.

The first act of this classy base ball festival will be a bloodless battle between the Minneapolis General Electrics, amateur champions of Minneapolis and the Armours Class A amateur champions of Omaha.

The Armours are in the pink of condition and go into the arena prepared to put themselves a step further towards the coveted goal stationed at Houston, Tex. Of course, the strength of the Minneapolis

General Electrics should not be underestimated. They had to be a bunch of speed merchants to hook the bunting and, according to the dope, they are a congregation of speedy, hard-hitting, clever manipulators with thought tanks that play a conspicuous part in every tangle. Edward Gurness will hurl them in his usual manner for the Omaha boys, and J. Anderson will most probably hoist tem for Minneapolis.

All Nations and Brandeis.

The second dish, All Nations against Brandeis. Several times the All Nations have entertained the fans in Omaha, and all of their battles with teresting. This fellow, Mendez, affiliated with the All Nations, is a show all by himself. He can spring enough comical stuff to make the king of pessimists kick through with a joy expression adorning his manp and, aside from the comedy, he is a peacherino, handling the pill. Donaldson, southpaw, the peer of the African race, will twist his puzzlers at the Brandeis and Oleson, the best twirler around this neck of the woods, will be on the firing line for the Brandeis.
