

PITCHERS DO SPLENDI WORK

Win Two Games for the All-Nations
Over the Storz Triumphs.

DONALDSON IS THE REAL STAR

He Strikes Out Twenty-Eight of the Brewery Hitters in the Second Game—Mendez, the Cuban,
Also Shines.

Fred Bradford's semi-professional ball tossers, the Storz Triumphs, dropped both games of a double-header to the All-Nations yesterday afternoon at Rourke's park. Masterful pitching on the part of the visiting team spelled defeat for the locals. Donaldson, who hurled the second game struck out twenty-eight batters winning the game in twelve innings, 3 to 2. The first game was lost by the Triumphs, to the tun of 1 to 0, in seven innings.

Mendez, the Cuban wonder, who two years ago defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, by a 1 to 0 score, was directly responsible for the winning of both games for his team. In the first game, the one in which he pitched he gave but two hits and scored the only run of the game in the fifth inning with a two-base hit. In the second battle he made a wonderful catch off Durkee's Texas leaguer over short. Graham was on second when Durkee batted what looked to be a sure hit. Mendez started running with the ball at the crack of the bat and caught it with a leap, making the third out, just as Graham reached the plate.

Scores Winning Run.

Then in the twelfth inning he doubled, stole third and scored on Donaldson's infield hit. It was the winning run of the game as the Storz failed to score in their half of the final inning.

Both games were fast and interesting. The pitching of Donaldson in the second game was the feature. Fifty men faced him and twenty-eight were sent to the bench through the strike-out route. He passed seven men and gave six hits. At only one stage of the game was he in danger and that was in the fifth inning, when with the bases full and but two out he struck out the next two men to face him, including "Doc" Welch, the former Omaha player. He managed to strike out every one of the Storz players at least once and Olson whiffed five times. Eddie Creighton was the only local man, who could seem to connect safely. Creighton got three singles in four time at bat.

An unusually large crowd was out to witness the game. The Storz team put up a fine exhibition of base ball and would have won, but for the wonderful work of the opposing twirlers. They managed to hit the ball hard enough in the second game, but when hits were needed they were not forthcoming.

But One Run.

The visitors made the only run in the first game. In the fifth inning with two men down, Castanler walked and scored on Mendez' double to center.

In the second game the Storz drew first blood. In the first inning with two down, Drummy walked and scored on Welch's double. The visitors tied it in the fourth. Donaldson landed safe on an infield hit, went to second on a dead ball and scored on Walla's single to right. In the fifth they made another. Mendez singled, took second on a sacrifice and scored on Reeve's double.

The Storz tied the score again in the sixth. Prucha tripled and scored on Falconer's single.

In the twelfth Mendez doubled, stole third and scored on Donaldson's infield hit. Score:
