

HUB CITY CUBS MEET ALL NATIONS SUNDAY

MUCH TOUTED COSMOPOLITAN TEAM MEETS CUBS SUNDAY

In what is promised to be the most interesting game of the season the Hub City Cubs will cross bats with the All Nations of Des Moines, Ia., Sunday at Tacoma Park. The All Nations need no introduction to the local fans and with the assurance that the great John Donaldson will cover the mound, baseball bugs of the city will see a slab man that is conceded to be the speediest twirler in the game.

Manager Gaul also points with pride to the other members of his pitching staff. Mendez, the Cuban, alternates with Donaldson in the box and while not possessing the speed of the black marvel, he likewise has a reputation of hanging the strike out sign on most of the batters around this section of the country. As a third member of the mound artists, Cannon Ball Jackson manages to share more than his burden of the twirling honors with credit to himself.

The All Nations are by no means entirely dependent upon their collection of box men. An infield that is fast and quick to size up the situations combined with garden men that not only possess fielding ability but hitting qualities as well, the team at a whole is about as well balanced aggregation that can be collected.
