

26 Teams of 69 Applicants Picked for Bluffs Tourney

TWENTY-SIX teams were selected Saturday from 69 entries to play in the annual Southwestern Iowa baseball tournament at West Broadway park, Council Bluffs, August 26 to September 5. Tourney officials limited Class A to 10 teams and Class B to 16.

Heading the list in the upper division are the Cubans, defending champions; the Holdenville, Okla., Indians, winners of the Denver Post tourney, and the Sioux Falls, S. D., Canaries, run-up at Denver.

Others in Class A are Gilker-son Union Giants of Chicago, Sloux City Stockyards, Hampton, Ia., Grover Cleveland Alexander's House of David, Tekamah, Neb., Council Bluffs Athletics and the John Donaldson Stars.

The Carter Lake club, leader in the American sandlot league, applied for a berth in Class A but the officials decided the Omaha team would compete on more even terms in Class B. Others in Class B:

Hughes Motors of Council Bluffs, Fort Crook Soldiers, Dakota City, Neb., Weathoro, Mo., and Mapleton, Red Oak, Stanton, Dunlap, Missouri Valley, Randolph, Macedonia, Moorhead, California Junction, Tabor and the Des Moines Daniels Brothers, all of Iowa.

Omaha World-Herald, Omaha, NE

Sunday, August 7, 1932, Sports Page 1, Columns 1 and 2