In one of the most sensational games seen on Cando diamond for several years, the home team defeated the famous All Nations team Tuesday afternoon in a 12 inning contest, by a 3 to 2 score. Carver never failed for weak~~ness~~ visitors to 5 hits. Cando put Ra-~~nderson~~ mission, took a few and finished up on Sowles. Cando held the lead to the 8th inning when All Nations put two men across the plate going ahead one. Fay's single, Reed's twobagger, with another hit by Nig tied the score in the 9th. It stayed there until the 12th, when, with the bases filled Keenan drove a long fly to center. Donaldson grabbed it, but failed to make a return to home plate in time to stop Nig coming in with the winning run. Don't let any one get the notion that All Nations presented Cando with this game. They played to win—they always do.

to win—they always do.
