The game yesterday was a weird affair. A large crowd was out to see this game, to get a look at Donaldson, the famous colored pitcher. He worked for four innings and while he was hit the same as any other pitcher, he had lots of stuff on the ball and when he got in a hole he smoked 'em over a mile a minute. He worked four innings and retired in favor of Weldell. The latter was hit hard. Labiss, for Elk Point, was hit consistently but fielding errors put him in bad at a number of stages of the game. The final score was 14 to 11 in favor of the All Nations. The
