The All-Nations repeated their victory over the Kansas City Giants yesterday at Association park, winning by a big rally in the eighth inning, 4 to 0. Lefty Smith had held the Nations helpless up to that time.

The second game of the series will be played at Association park this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Donaldson will pitch for the All-Nations and Jimmie Lyons for the Giants.

The All-Nations hammered Smith in the eighth inning of yesterday's game at Association park and beat the Kansas City, Kas., Giants, 4 to 0. The two teams will play the first game of a doubleheader bill tomorrow afternoon at the park and the Royal Americans will meet the All-Nations in the second half of the programme.
