The folks who put Simpson in the second class of ball teams, when playing the All-Nations were off their base. Simpson cleaned up on the All-Nations all last week, winning the game at Junction City, Sunday, in the eleventh inning, by a score of 6 to 5. And Bill Horrell is the fellow who broke up the game and sent the winning score over the home plate when he doubled. Simpson defeated Donaldson in the Sunday game and in the game at Chapman.
