John Donaldson had the A. B. C.'s of Indianapolis on his staff yesterday afternoon at Association park, and the All Nations won the first game of the series from Indianapolis, 5 to 1. Donaldson was never in danger throughout the contest as the All Nations jumped into the lead in the very first inning and he allowed but few scattered blows. He also struck out eleven while his teammates were hammering Johnson and Ben Taylor all over the lot. The All Nations will be seen in action in all the Major League championship games. They will play the Kansas City, Kas., Giants Saturday at 2 o'clock, while the Schmeisera and Wagners of St. Louis will play the big game at 3:30. Sunday the All Nations and the Topeka, Kas., Giants will play at 2 o'clock and the Schmeisera and Wagners in the main contest at 3:30. Returns of the world's series will be read inning by inning to the fans at both games.
