

Date	Location	Win	Loss	Tie	Strikeouts	No K Total Known
June 17, 1932	Fairmont, MN	0	1	0	0	1

BLACKBURN MILLER'S peppery bunch of youngsters known as the Fairmont Travelers invaded Mark's park yesterday afternoon and truly upset the dope pot by returning to the City of Lakes with a 6-to-5 victory over John Donaldson and his All-Stars. To make the win cherished all the more, it was the famous John who took the walloping. Some terrible errors and a little high school baseball by the colored boys gave the Travelers four of their six runs—but it was a win, nevertheless. Jerry Gardner, former Western League hurler, was on the hill for the Travelers and after the third frame was a whale of a chuster. Two errors in the first three frames gave the All-Stars a chance to wrap up a 4 to 0 lead, but they couldn't hold it. The locals crashed through with three runs in the fifth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh. They clicked Donaldson's slants for ten base hits. Eddie Deal, the Elmore whiz, had a perfect day at bat with two singles, a double and a walk in four trips to the plate, and Eddie is a portable hitter. The Travelers were able to bunch their hits in the sixth and seventh, when six of their ten were registered.

The score by innings:

A H E

Travelers000 220 000—4 12 2
All Stars022 900 100—5 10 2