

—The ball game at Sherburn Friday between the Albert Lea and All Nations teams resulted in a shut-out victory for the diversified players, Albert Lea being unable to score while the men from everywhere got across six times. The game was played on very poor grounds which prevented both teams from showing their best form. There was an immense crowd and many automobile loads from Fairmont.

Game played August 27, 1915 at Sherburn, MN