

Ha! Ha! The locals won today. Looks as though the team has decided to win all of the series they play but never a Sunday tilt. However, the team is fairly rounding into reasonable machine-like working order. Carr is back guarding the initial sack. Fred Hicks, a try out third baseman, showed pop at the tripple corner, he also got two hits. The Monarchs scored a quartet of runs in the very first inning, two of them were home runs by Donaldson and Carr. Furrman and Crawford worked on the mound for the Monarchs who clinched the game in the early stages.

Score by innings:

St. Louis	.....11010000	5
K. C.	.....00002010	7

Game played June 14, 1920 at Kansas City, MO.