

About 5,000 people saw the Monarchs win the Chicago aggregation at Association Park last Sunday in twin bill which was marked and tagged to the Monarchs address. In the first game Taylor, pitching ace of the Giants and Currie of the Monarchs were the opposing hurlers with "King" Curry the victor, 7-2.

Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0
Monarchs	0	3	1	0	0	3	1	0

SECOND SUNDAY GAME.

The second game was a battle between Miller of the Giants, a fork-handed heaver, and Walter Hogan, the "Bullet" of the Monarchs. Hogan allowed right scattered hits and squeaked away with a victory, 6-2.

Chicago	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0
Monarchs	0	0	0	2	0	2	0	0

Games played August 7, 1921 at Kansas City, MO.