

MAJOR LEAGUERS HERE TODAY.

The Monarchs Will Open a 2 Game Series With Stengel's Men.

A picked team of major league players, managed by Casey Stengel, a native son from the "big show," will open a 2 game series with the Kansas City Monarchs of the National Negro League today at Association park. In the line up of the major club, which is making a tour to the Pacific Coast, will be seen several of the most widely known players in the game. "Rabbit" Maranville of the Boston Braves will play short, "Cot" Tierney of the Pirates will appear at second, Boeckel of the Braves at third, Paulette of the Phillies at first and Schmidt of the Pirates behind the bat. The major league pitchers making the trip are Meadows, Hubbell and Rixey of the Phillies and Martin of the Cubs.

The opposing pitchers for the opening game probably will be "Speed" Martin and Crawford. The game will start at 3 o'clock. The line up.
