The All Nation baseball club is now playing the following schedule in South Dakota: Faulkton, July 22; De Smet, July 23-24; Bryant, July 25; Howard, July 26; Mitchell, July 27-28; Montrose, July 29; Lennox, July 30; Sioux Falls, July 31 and August 1.

All Nations have won 36 out of 42 games played in North Dakota and Montana. The great John Donaldson, the greatest colored pitcher of today, is taking his regular turn pitching, and up to date has lost three games this season. Jap Jacobs, a native of Japan, is second on the club, he having lost eight games out of thirty pitched. Wheeler Smith joined this club at Jamestown, N. D., and so far has pitched ten games, lost two.

All Nations are managed by Wilkinson and Gaul, the originators of All Nations, and are in no way connected with any other so-called All Nations who are traveling under their title and who are misrepresenting themselves the All Nation baseball club by starting reports that John Donaldson was hurt.
