

MONARCHS DOWN CUBANS, 5 TO 0, ARLINGTON MEET

Brewer Holds Cubans to Three Hits in Tournament Finals.

(The World-Herald's Sports Service.)

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 27. —

Brewer, tall and rangy right-handed pitcher of the Kansas City Monarchs, held the Cubans to three hits as the Monarchs triumphed, 5 to 0, in the championship contest of the eastern Nebraska baseball tournament at Arlington Sunday. Three thousand five hundred saw the contest.

From start to finish it was a case of too much Brewer. The Negro hurler began by striking out the first three to face him. He whiffed seven during the contest. One of the hits off him, by Estrada, was a fluke, the ball striking Brewer's glove and bounding to Second Baseman Mothel, who fell down while fielding it.

Estrada Too Wild.

Estrada, southpaw from the Omaha Western league team, started for the Cubans. He was in trouble early, but pulled out with a neat bit of pitching. He walked Mothel, Duncan and Brown but struck out the next two batsmen.

The Monarchs scored twice in the third. Donaldson was safe when Vargas juggled his grounder and went to second when the Cuban shortstop overthrew first. Duncan's double scored him and Duncan scored on Young's double to left.

The next two scores came in the sixth. Allen doubled down the third base line and scored on Joseph's two-baser. Estrada was removed from the box in favor of Wilson, another southpaw. Harris sacrificed to send Joseph to third. Joseph scored on Brewer's grounder to first.

Ruling Costs Cuban Score.

Wilson pitched good ball in the three innings he worked. He fanned three in the seventh. The Monarchs scored on him in the eighth, when Allen was hit by a pitched ball and Siki dropped Harris' long fly in center. The Cubans lost their only real scoring chance by a decision at the plate. In the sixth Vargas walked, went to third when Valdez singled to right, and tried to score when Young threw to second as Valdez attempted a steal. Second Baseman Mothel made a quick return to Young, but it was too late to catch the sliding Vargas. Umpire Jim Kane ruled that Vargas had not touched the plate. The decision was unpopular.
