Schmelzer's All-Nations won the championship of Kansas City yesterday afternoon by defeating the Old Fashioned Lagers, 9 to 0, at Association park. John Donaldson worked for the winners and he was master of the game all the way. He allowed but three scattered hits, struck out twelve and not an opponent reached third base. Lefty Karosen, who pitched for the losers, was touched for twelve hits, two of which were home runs. Mendez and Henning each hit for the entire circuit. In the seventh inning Torrientas tripled and stole home.
