John Donaldson started on the rubber for the Monarchs, but after hurling three innings he went to center field and Smith came in and finished the game. Only four batters reached first off Donaldson, one getting a home run, the second a double and the third was safe on an infield error. Donaldson also fanned six batters.

Kansas City, Mo., April 29.—The Kansas City Monarchs opened the local baseball season here Sunday afternoon playing an exhibition game against the fast Nebraska Sioux Indians, defeating them by the score of 9 to 3. Donaldson and Lefty Smith did the twirling for Wilkerson's tribe and Big Chief Buffalo was on the mound for the "Injuns." The hitting of John Donaldson, Carr and King was responsible for the locals' victory. The Kansas City team has
