John Donaldson, of whom it has been said that he could have traveled in "Big Time" company but for his dusky skin, pitched a good game, Sunday. He always pitches a good game, but it seems that the Clarkfield club has a peculiar faculty for finding his curves. At any rate, heavy hitting was the order of the day. Art Lee, got three fine hits off his delivery; Skaug got a home run; Orres and Heiberg each got a two-bagger; Hjortas got a couple of the same brand, and Walter Friberg also kept up the batting streak he's had lately. Fourteen hits in all, were gotten off Donaldson's delivery, netting the locals 8 runs to Melrose's 3.
